

Programs

Drama Minor

(18 credits)

Drawing on the College's rich liberal arts tradition and historical commitment to theater on campus, the Minor in Drama enables students who are not majoring in English to focus a substantial part of their undergraduate studies on drama.

To earn the Drama minor, students must complete six of the courses listed below:

| | |
|---------|---|
| DR 245 | History of the American Musical Theatre |
| CO 326 | The Creative Mind |
| EN 244A | Creative Writing: Poetry, Short Fiction, Short Theater Pieces |
| EN 244B | Creative Writing: Poetry, Short Fiction, Short Theater Pieces |
| EN 245 | The Composing Process |
| EN 255 | Special Topics in British and American Literature |
| EN 283 | Shakespeare I |
| EN 284 | Shakespeare II |
| EN 293 | From Adultery to Apocalypse: Five Amazing Plays |
| EN 380 | Internship |
| EN 390 | Independent Study |