

Programs

History Minor

(18 credits)

History minors will examine the major intellectual, cultural, socio-political, economic, and artistic achievements of civilizations from the emergence of complex societies to the present age. Our goal is to develop a global perspective by studying different worldviews, social institutions, religions and systems of thought as they evolved in human history.

To earn the History minor, students must complete the courses listed below:

HI 385 Historiography

Five History (HI) courses