

Career and Professional Development

On-Campus Recruiting

Local, statewide, and national companies participate in on-campus and virtual recruiting activities through the Office of Career & Professional Development to directly connect students with employers seeking to fill open positions in many fields. Activities include employer information sessions.