

Academic Policies and Procedures: General

Discontinued Programs

Students pursuing degree programs which the college discontinues will be allowed to complete the degree program within a specified time limit determined at the point of discontinuance. This is determined according to the student's progress toward degree completion and will not exceed two years for any students. Students who withdraw from a discontinued program during the specified time limit will not be permitted to re-enroll under the discontinued program upon return to the college.