

The College

The Albertus Community

Albertus Magnus College stresses excellence, access and innovation in higher education. Welcoming students of all races, genders, creeds, and countries of national origin, the College has a tradition of designing specially-tailored programs for students at different stages of their post-secondary education. Albertus Magnus offers academic programs in on-ground, blended, flex, and online formats at undergraduate and graduate levels that are designed to meet the specific needs of discrete groups of learners. Each program embodies the College's commitment to promoting lifelong learning by providing an education that enables students to pursue truth in all its dimensions that is also practical in its application.

The Albertus Magnus College Traditional Undergraduate Program is a semester-based undergraduate experience at our New Haven campus. Assisting students to develop insight into the world and their place in it, the Traditional Undergraduate Program stresses the Liberal Arts as a foundation for the skills, knowledge, and dispositions needed to build meaningful lives and careers. Featuring small class sizes, personalized attention from highly qualified faculty who are masters of their disciplines and the craft of teaching, the Program offers thirty-four majors in the Liberal Arts and Sciences, Business and Education.

The Division of Professional and Graduate Studies is designed specifically to meet the needs of the adult learner. The program features a flexible scheduling system that permits students to attend on either a full or part-time basis. Innovative approaches to adult learning combine the convenience of online instruction with the personalized classroom attention that is a hallmark of the Albertus experience. Many programs are offered in a flexible format that allows students to choose on a course-by-course basis between blended courses and fully online offerings.

The Division of Professional and Graduate Studies offers three associates-level and seventeen bachelors-level Liberal Arts and Business Programs through its Accelerated Degree Program. A total of seventeen graduate programs include a Master of Arts in Art Therapy and Counseling (the only program of its kind in the state), Master of Fine Arts in Writing, Master of Business Administration, Master of Public Administration, Master of Science in Education, Master of Science in Accounting, Master of Science in Human Services, the combined Master of Science in Human Services/Addiction Counseling Certificate Program, Master of Science in Clinical Counseling, Master of Science in Criminal Justice, Master of Science in Healthcare Administration, Master of Science in Instructional Design and Learning Technology and Master of Science in Management and Organizational Leadership, as well as a post-baccalaureate Initial Teacher Preparation Program, graduate certificate in STEM Leadership and post-masters certificates in Addiction Counseling and Advanced Alternative Preparation (AAP) as a Literacy Specialist in Reading/Language Arts Certification. All programs are offered on the College's main campus in New Haven, CT. (See the Albertus Magnus College website for the most current offerings and locations: www.albertus.edu)
