The Tradition of Honor

The ideal of honor is an integral and important part of college life at Albertus. Honor implies that each member of the College has a personal responsibility to abide by and to uphold the policies of the College. Its practice extends to every aspect of college life. The spirit of honor encourages a strong sense of mutual responsibility, respect, trust, and fairness among all the members of the campus community.

Students in all of the College's academic programs are expected to act within the Tradition of Honor, and follow all rules and regulations. The procedures that guide the College's actions with respect to the Tradition of Honor are outlined in the Student Handbook.
