

Financial Aid

Financial Aid Office

The mission of the Albertus Magnus College's FAO is to serve the student body and all members of the College community, facilitate access to higher education, provide financial means, assist in the achievement of enrollment goals, promote financial knowledge, and adhere to all state and federal compliance regulations.