Human Services, B.S.

(54 credits)

The Bachelor of Science in Human Services, under the Department of Psychology, is designed to provide students with a career-oriented degree which is combined with a rigorous Liberal Arts education. The major prepares the student to work in the community in professional capacities such as community outreach worker, case manager, community support counselor, and job coach. This major requires six credits of supervised internship experience. It is an interdisciplinary major drawing upon courses from several disciplines, including: Psychology, Sociology, Management, and Philosophy, in addition to the core general education courses.

Upon completing the program of study in Human Services, students will:

- Demonstrate skills in observation, needs assessment, social intervention, program development and implementation, and evaluation of outcomes.
- Assess the human service needs of individuals, families, and communities.
- Analyze major social issues, social problems, and current socio-political and socio-cultural events which affect human services.
- Understand and apply legal and ethical standards affecting the delivery of human services.

4 + 1 Program: BA/BS to MS in Human Services

The 4+1 Master of Science in Human Services program is designed for high-achieving traditional undergraduate students who wish to complete both a bachelor's degree and a master's degree in an accelerated format.

Students complete a total of 159 credits: 120 at the undergraduate level and 39 at the graduate level. During their senior year, students take two graduate-level courses that count toward both undergraduate and graduate degree requirements. These graduate credits are offered at no additional cost during the undergraduate phase for students formally accepted into the 4+1 program.

Eligible students must apply to the MS in Human Services program in the spring semester of their junior year. A minimum cumulative GPA of 3.5 is required for consideration. Upon acceptance, students are assigned a graduate faculty advisor in addition to their undergraduate faculty advisor to support their academic and professional development.

This program offers a streamlined, cost-effective pathway to advanced education in human services, preparing students for leadership roles in community organizations, social service agencies, and related fields.
