

Programs

Humanities, B.A.

(45 credits)

The Bachelor of Arts in Humanities, under the Department of English and Communications, is designed for the student who is self-disciplined, self-motivated, and interested in pursuing a topic, theme, or cross-cultural project that is interdisciplinary in nature. Students pursuing a Bachelor of Arts in Humanities work with an advisor to outline a program focused on the following subjects: Art, Communications, English, History, Humanities, Languages and Culture, Philosophy and Religion.

Although the field of concentration crosses departmental lines, some particular theme, topic, or historical period should serve as a focal point. The student should, with the assistance of the director who must approve the selection and distribution of the courses, select a sufficient number of courses around this focal point to assure a more profound understanding of the area of study.

Upon completing the program of study in Humanities, students will:

- Increase their competence in close analysis of texts across the humanities.
- Cultivate an appreciation for cultural difference and an understanding of other points of view.
- Improve in writing clearly and correctly.
- Engage in professions that require clear, precise, and effective oral and written communication.
